

BRAND KIOSK

Brand. Kiosk is a specialised communication and PR consultancy working internationally across the architecture, design, art and cultural sectors. A passion and curiosity for these sectors and their creative intersection are at the heart of what we do.

PR-CONSULTANT (M/F/D), PERMANENT POSITION

To further strengthen our team, we are seeking a motivated and structured PR consultant (m/f/d) in a permanent position as soon as possible. You will be actively engaged in a variety of exciting PR and communication projects within the design and architecture sector, supporting us in the development and implementation of creative strategies.

Your responsibilities

- Editing and writing press releases and creation of content for our clients' various projects
- Proactive press relations and media liaison
- Planning, organising and implementing events and functions
- Provide communications and marketing advice to our clients
- Strategic support and development of our and our clients' social media channels and creation of targeted content for digital platforms
- Monitoring and analysing social media and PR performance to optimise our communications activities
- Assist in the development and implementation of creative and tailored PR campaigns

What you bring to the table

- A degree in communications, journalism, marketing, architecture, design or a related field
- A strong passion for design, architecture, art and culture, and a talent for writing and communication
- Work experience in the communications industry, ideally in press relations, social media management and event organization
- Creativity, structured work and a high degree of initiative
- Excellent written and spoken German and English
- Strong knowledge of standard Microsoft Office programmes, ideally also knowledge of Adobe InDesign
- Enthusiasm for digital media, especially social media, and interest in current trends in the media landscape

BRAND KIOSK

What we offer

- Exciting and varied work in an international, interdisciplinary team
- The opportunity to independently design and implement creative projects
- The chance to work on international projects and travel abroad, for example to trade fairs and events
- A dynamic working environment that values teamwork, openness and innovation
- The chance to be part of an agency that is committed to contemporary and consistent communication solutions.

Application

If you would like to work in a creative and international environment and share your passion for design, architecture and communication, we look forward to receiving your detailed application.
